ORDER

WHEREAS many cases of domestic violence/abuse are being reported during the period of lockdown since the abuser/perpetrator and the victim may have been confined within the same physical space due to imposition of curfew;

WHEREAS the mobility of the victims and their access to system of redressal has also been limited due to the situation of lockdown and curfew in public places;

THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers vested in me under Section 34 of the Disaster Management Act, 2005 I, Rakesh Kumar Prajapati, District Magistrate, Kangra at Dharamshala, hereby order that the Child Development Project Officers (CDPOs) of the ICDS Project in District Kangra shall be the Nodal Officers for receiving and attending to the calls of distress from victims of domestic violence/abuse until further orders. The complaints received by the Nodal Officers shall be dealt with as per the provisions of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 and they shall render all possible assistance to the victim in coordination with the Police Department. Due to the gravity and extraordinary nature of the situation, it is further directed that the Nodal Officers shall attend to all such calls received on their numbers notified as part of the District Helpline and they shall not switch off or render unavailable or change the notified phone numbers at any time.

Any officer contravening this order shall be liable for prosecution under Section 51 of the Disaster Management Act 2005 besides disciplinary action;
