Kerala announces Rs. 3,000 crores agriculture revival package

Thiruvananthapuram, April 29: In a bid to ensure food security and employment generation, Kerala today announced a Rs. 3,000 crores package for the revival of the agriculture sector. Chief Minister Shri Pinarayi Vijayan announced that the government plans to spend Rs. 1,500 crores in the next five years on agriculture development. The package aims to benefit farmers and create jobs in the agriculture sector.

Ten new cases & Ten recoveries today, total 123 patients under treatment

As per the Health Department, there are currently 10 patients in Thiruvananthapuram district, followed by 12 in Kollam district, 15 in Alappuzha district, 18 in Ernakulam district, 23 in Thrissur district, 24 in Palakkad district, 25 in Kottayam district, 26 in Idukki district, 27 in Pathanamthitta district, and 29 in Kasargod district. There are no patients in Thrissur, Alappuzha, and Wayanad districts.

Meanwhile, ten patients under treatment for Coronavirus have tested negative today. Three patients have been discharged from hospitals, bringing the total number of recoveries to 123.

Cabinet approves ordinance to defer Government employees’ salary

The cabinet meeting held today has decided to recommend to the Governor to promulgate an ordinance to defer the Government employees’ salary for the next five months. The ordinance would be applicable to all government employees, employees of all local bodies, and employees of all boards under the Government for a period of one year.

Vijayan said he had decided to recommend to the Governor to promulgate an ordinance to defer the government employees’ salary for the next five months as per the cabinet’s decision.

Kerala announces Rs. 3,000 crores agriculture revival package

Thiruvananthapuram, April 29: Chief Minister Shri Pinarayi Vijayan today announced that the state government plans to spend Rs. 1,500 crores in the next five years on agriculture development. The package aims to benefit farmers and create jobs in the agriculture sector.

Boards under the Government and members of Local Self Government bodies, for a period of one year. There would be a 30% deduction in the MLA’s monthly amenity fund also.

The Chief Minister has also announced that in the context of the High Court order, the government employees for the next five months but the Kerala High Court had stayed the order.

Shri Pinarayi Vijayan announced that the government plans to spend Rs. 1,500 crores in the next five years on agriculture development. The package aims to benefit farmers and create jobs in the agriculture sector.

The Agriculture Department has come up with a massive programme to use the fallow land for farming from next month. The project will be implemented in all LSG bodies by utilising the NABARD and Co-operative Sector.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality. The Agriculture Department has also prepared an agriculture plan for the next five years.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1,09,000 hectares of wasteland in the state. It is estimated that 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy. The Agriculture Department will employ trained people and promote the use of agricultural inputs.

The C-DIT department has come up with a massive programme to promote the use of digital marketing systems. There will be an emphasis on value-added products.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

The Agriculture Department has also prepared an agriculture plan for the next five years. Short term and long term programmes are included in the plan. The short term plan is for crop cultivation. Various departments like Animal Husbandry, Irrigation, Cooperation, Fisheries, and Forests would be involved in this plan.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.

As per the Agriculture Department, there are 1.4 lakh hectares can be used for intercropping. As farming spreads and production increases, new agricultural enterprises will open up in the state and will also contribute to the state’s economy.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a draft plan and it has been decided to finalise the plan and take implementation. The plan will overcome menaces, intend and increase production as well as quality.