ORDER

Whereas, the Cabinet Secretary, Govt. of India has intimated vide D.O. dated 23.04.2020 that a significant number of Indian Nationals are working abroad and Indian students pursuing higher education in Colleges/Universities in different countries. In the wake of Covid-19, many of these Indian citizens may be desirous of returning to India but are unable to come due to ban on all passenger flights. It has been instructed that detailed planning by the State Governments may be required in the eventuality of returning of these individuals. Accordingly, the State Govt. has directed that an estimate of such citizens seeking to return may be collected.

In order to have an estimate of citizens belonging to district Sirsa, who are working abroad and students pursuing higher studies in different countries and desirous to come back, City Magistrate, Sirsa is hereby nominated as Nodal Officer to collect detailed information in this regard. DIPRO, Sirsa is directed to ensure wide publicity through all modes of communication that the family members/guardians of the persons belonging to district Sirsa, but are presently in abroad and now wish to return, should share all relevant information on phone No. 01666-248881 or mobile No. 98027-48848 upto 27.04.2020 by 3.00 PM.

Dated 23rd April 2020

Dear Chief Secretary,

As you are aware, a significant number of Indian Nationals are working abroad. Similarly, there are Indian students pursuing higher education in Colleges/Universities in different countries. In the situation that has developed in the wake of Covid-19, many of these Indian citizens may be desirous of returning to India but are unable to come due to ban on all passenger flights.

2. Eventual return of these individuals would require detailed planning by the State Governments. Arrangements would also need to be put in place by the State Governments for health check-ups, surveillance, quarantine etc. In the first instance, I would request that the following information may please be provided:-

   i. An estimate of Indian Nationals seeking to return to your State.
   ii. Proposed modalities for return and status of your arrangements to be put in place by the State Government.
   iii. Proposed SoP for handling of returnees.

3. Further consultations would be held with the State Governments after receipt of the above mentioned information. I would be grateful for your response.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajiv Gauba)
