ABOUT THE INSTITUTE NIDM, ROHINI CAMPUS

The National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM) was constituted under an Act of Parliament with a vision to play the role of a premier institute for capacity development in India and the region. The efforts in this direction that began with the formation of the National Centre for Disaster Management (NCDM) in 1995 gained impetus with its redesignation as the National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM) for training and capacity development. Under the Disaster Management Act 2005, NIDM has been assigned nodal responsibilities for human resource development, capacity building, training, research, documentation and policy advocacy in the field of disaster management.

NIDM is proud to have a multi-disciplinary core team of professionals working in various aspects of disaster management. In its endeavor to facilitate training and capacity development, the Institute has state-of-the-art facilities like class rooms, seminar hall and video-conferencing facilities etc. The Institute has a well-stocked library exclusively on the theme of disaster management and mitigation. The Institute provides training in face-to-face, on-line and self-learning mode as well as satellite based training. In-house and off-campus face-to-face training to the officials of the state governments is provided free of charge including modest boarding and lodging facilities.

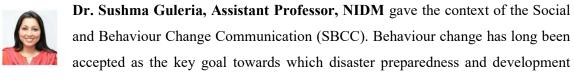

NIDM provides Capacity Building support to various National and State level agencies in the field of Disaster Management & Disaster Risk Reduction. The Institute's vision is to create a Disaster Resilient India by building the capacity at all levels for disaster prevention and preparedness.

INAUGURAL SESSION

interventions should aim. When individuals and communities take on board the practice of disaster preparedness and risk reduction in their own decision-making, then their resilience is strengthened, and they have the means to adjust to changing circumstances and continue to reduce vulnerability and strengthen safety.

Prof. Anil Kumar Gupta, Head, ECDRM NIDM welcomed the distinguished speakers, participants and also acknowledged the organizer for conducting the webinar on the topic. In his welcome address, Prof. Gupta, emphasised the importance of communication in DRR. He cited an example that there was a gap in theory and practice and the need for capacity building and training was felt.

Major General Manoj Kumar Bindal, Executive Director, NIDM: During his Inaugural Address, ED sir congratulated the entire team from both NIDM and UNICEF for bringing out the important training module on SBCC. The ED was optimistic that the document would bring about social and behavioural change within communities.

Shri Siddartha Shrestha, C4D Chief, UNICEF ICO: In his special address, Shri Siddartha acknowledged about the role of ED NIDM for taking leadership role in bringing out the document. He emphasised that communication is an integral component of any disaster response. COVID-19 pandemic and other natural disasters taught humankind that communication is equally important. Be it at the preparatory stage or at the response stage and has to be done in convergent and systematic manner.

above. Communication should ideally start by listening to men, women, youths and children. Steps should be taken to empower them.

LECTURES

Mr. Nisar Ahmad, SBCC Capacity Building Consultant at C4D Section

Ms. Varsha Chanda, Capacity Development Resource, Envision Institute of Development

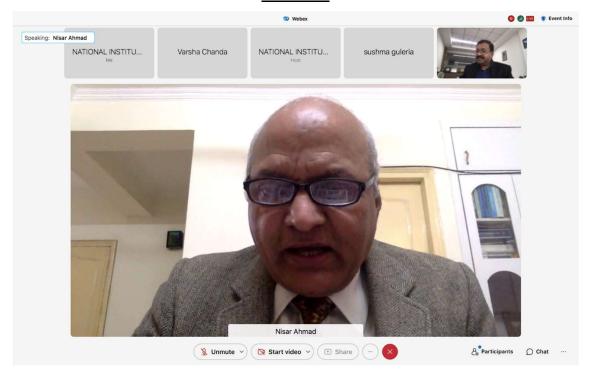

Joint Lecture on Social Behaviour and Communication Change (SBCC)

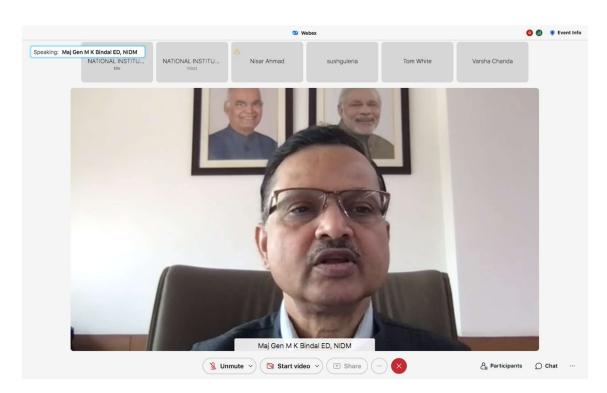

Training Module in the context of disaster risk reduction. The module consists of two parts – one of the module is SBCC in the context of DRR which is a sixty minute module which will provide inputs on SBCC as applied to disaster reduction context. Second part is about applying SBCC to specific disaster like floods, earthquakes, cyclones etc. each comprising of 30 minutes.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Recurrent disasters have adverse longer-term consequences on economic growth, development and poverty reduction targets.
- Behaviour change has been accepted as the key goal towards which disaster preparedness and development interventions must be aimed.
- When individuals and communities take on board the practice of disaster preparedness and risk reduction in their own decision-making, then their resilience is strengthened.
- Social and Behaviour Change Communication is the strategic use of communication approaches to promote changes in knowledge, attitudes, norms, beliefs and behaviours.
- SBCC has proven effective in several areas of health, education, nutrition, child protection, water, sanitation and hygiene etc.
- Communication is crucial to addressing the behavioral and social aspects of risks that precede and follow an emergency, and as such must be integrated into the response agenda from the outset.
- Communities need to be informed motivated and equipped to practice the necessary protective and preventive behaviours and this can be achieved through effective SBCC programming.
- Decision-makers, programmers, and service providers need SBCC skills that lead to promoting and supporting resilient behaviours and practices involving at-risk communities.
