Report On Three days Workshop

on

“Disaster Psycho-Social Care” from 14Dec-16 Dec 2020”

National Institute of Disaster Management NIDM New-Delhi along with Mukesh Patel School of Technology Management & Engineering Narsee Monjee University Shirpur offered a three days' workshop on “Disaster Psycho-Social Care” from 14Dec-16 Dec 2020. The ten months of COVID-19 pandemic and lockdown has brought about a sense of fear and anxiety around the globe. This phenomenon has led to the psychosocial and mental health implications for all of us. During such stressful situations, the institute took the initiative to look into psychological intervention and adopt necessary measures. The workshop targeted the individuals to educate them and to prepare them to face the mental health issues. MPSTME along with the NIDM, fully grasp the gravity of the crisis, and took the responsibility for the health and safety.

Major General Mr. Manoj Bindal Executive Director of National Institute of Disaster Management Delhi supported a lot to provide the opportunity to organize the workshop. Mr Arun Verma young professional from NIDM, talked about the fundamentals of disaster and demonstrated the differences between Hazards and Disaster. He stated the impact on COVID-19, pandemic on global and Indian Context. Mr. Ashish Panda Consultant NIDM, delivered talk on the psychological issues to handle the disaster and also demonstrated the challenges faced by the volunteers to handle the victims. Mr. Vikram Gurjar, Dy. Commandant, Incharge Training NIDM, during his session, elaborated on how to handle the emotions and mental health conditions of respondents. He briefed how to manage our-self practising yoga, deep breath, and other natural techniques to overcome from the problems. He extended his discussion to get rid of the rumours and advised to rely on the authenticated sources. Mr Shekher Chaturvedi Asstt Professor NIDM on his session elucidate about Ethics and Essentials and also referred the policy framed by American Psychiatry Association.

Dr Asha an eminent psychologist, addressed on emotional hurt abuses and imbalances inside the victims. She emphasizes on internal and external imbalance and how to cure against the rejections, self-respect and hurt. She also referred ancient Vedic techniques and practises to adopt during the pandemic situation.

Dr Girish Mishra Professor O P Jindal University, he elaborated on impact of mass causality that how it causes serious imbalance in rescue operation. Ms Kiran Counsellor Psychologist SVKM NMIMS Shirpur took a session on thriving from crisis times by building emotional resilience and her questioner to find our resilience quotient was appreciated by the participants. She addressed on self-compassion and how to discover elements inside us.

There were over 500 participants all over Maharashtra, Rajasthan Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh and Delhi NCR. Formal feedback was taken by the organizing committee and it was very encouraging.

Dr Kamal Mehta from SVKM NMIMS Shirpur campus coordinated the event along with Prof Varun and Prof Dhananjay from department of Computer Science and Engineering. The organizers are sure that the participants will overcome this pandemic to build the healthier, safer, society they all want to see. The event was guided by Dr Narayan Chandak Officiating Director MPSTME, and Dr R S Gaud, Director MPTP Shirpur. All administrative support was extended by Shri Rahul Dhandey, and the blessings of Shri Raj Gopal ji Bhandari, Mentor of the Shirpur campus boosted the moral of the organizing team and the participants. University administration would like to have more association and to have more activities for furtherance of the society.

Key takeaways

1. In order to have holistic management of disasters, Psycho-social rehabilitation of survivors is a must.
2. Though psycho-social counselling is a technical activity, but there needs to be more such counsellors available for addressing such an important issue.
3. Involvement of local community in identifying the need of pshycho-social counselling needs more attention.
